C COUNTY

C COMMUNITY

A ALLIANCE

HISTORIC STATEMENT

The Alliance began as the Livingston County Substance Abuse Consortium in October 1986. The group consisted of representatives from the five county school systems, health services and law enforcement who met to join forces to implement a plan to deal effectively with substance abuse in the county. As a result of bimonthly meetings, a consortium was formed, aimed to develop educational and environmental strategies. The goal at that time was to provide identical alcohol/drug information to all county youth, adults and agencies through school and community in-service. This broad-based community approach was offered to disseminate accurate information and promote increased self-esteem among youth so that they may make more informed lifetime decisions.

As the five school districts united with the support of the school superintendents, many joint efforts and objectives were planned. Many positive programs were operated under this committee's directive.

At a Governor's conference in November 1990, eight individuals from Livingston County attended the conference. From this meeting a community-based committee has been formed entitled "The Livingston County Community Alliance". With this broader based committee being formed, the Livingston County Substance Abuse Consortium has joined forces with this committee to form one effort.
